Attica Welcomes New History Teacher

Written by Mady Winters

Mr. Robert Adcock teaches social studies for junior high and high school this year at Attica. He commutes from Wellington because his wife teaches in South Haven. He was attracted to Attica because of the similarities and differences between Attica and his previous teaching job.

Mr. Adcock was a teacher once before, but he decided to take a break from teaching to be the Charitable Games Administrator for the state and then a revenue agent. After watching his wife make an impact on her students' lives, he decided to return to teaching. When he saw the position advertised for Attica, he didn't hesitate to reach out to Mr. Sanders and to apply.

When asked if he could have a plane ticket to anywhere in the US, Mr. Adcock responded, "Oregon, because I have close friends there, the landscape is beautiful, and there's no sales tax."

Titans Continue Winning Streak

Written by Carl Lilja

The Titans defeated Central Burden 62-38 in Argonia on September 7. Junior Mason Miller suffered an injury in the first half of the game that will keep him out for the rest of the season. Adam Blanchat filled in for Miller for the remainder of the game. It looks like Blanchat will fill the spot for the rest of the season.

Last Friday, September 14, the Titans beat Skyline after a shaky start. The JV received some varsity playing time against Skyline because of the large lead during the fourth quarter. The final score was 44-10.
